Arkansas Press Women Scholarship

Students at Arkansas colleges or universities planning a career in mass communications or journalism are invited to apply for a $1,000 scholarship from Arkansas Press Women, a professional organization for men and women working in communications.

To get a list of criteria and an application, contact your college’s financial aid office or journalism program chairperson.

Or visit the APW Web site at www.arkansaspresswomen.org.

Application deadline: March 1
Arkansas Press Women Scholarship

Application

APW awards a $1,000 scholarship each spring to an undergraduate student – male or female – studying at an Arkansas college or university who is planning a career in mass communications or journalism.

Application deadline: March 1, 2014

Eligibility
Applicant must be entering his/her junior or senior year in the 2014-2015 school year
Applicants must be attending an Arkansas college or university.
APW scholarship recipients are eligible to reapply the next year.
APW does not discriminate based on gender, race, color, national origin, religion or disability.

Criteria
The scholarship committee will give preference to the following applicants:
- Are majoring in journalism or mass communications
- Have an overall grade point average of 3.25 or better
- Have published writing or broadcast samples

Name:

Address:

City:
State:
ZIP:

Telephone (evening or cell): (__________)

Name of College Attending:

Major:

GPA:__________ on a _________-point scale

Place of employment:
Applicant should submit the completed application form with:
His/her official college transcript
Three letters of recommendation (one must be from a faculty member who knows the applicant’s communication/journalism skills)
Three communication/journalism writing/broadcast samples
A statement of professional goals (400 words or less)

Completed application packets should be mailed to:

Bill Shrum, APW Scholarship Chair, P. O. Box 443, Stuttgart AR 72160