Procedures for non-EU citizens: visa

Only if you stay less than 90 days, do not need a visa if they are nationals of Andorra, Argentina, Australia, Bolivia, Brazil, Brunei Darussalam, Bulgaria, Canada, Chile, South Korea, Costa Rica, Croatia, El Salvador, Slovakia, Slovenia, United States, Estonia, Guatemala, Honduras, Israel, Japan, Malaysia, Mexico, Monaco, Nicaragua, New Zealand, Panama, Paraguay, Romania, San Marino, Vatican, Singapore, Uruguay and Venezuela. For all other countries need a visa.

If you stay in Spain will exceed 90 days must apply for a student visa.

It is requested, exclusively, at the Embassy of Spain in the country of residence (can not be in another, except that it has no consular representation). The documents requested are:

- The completed form in case (you get in your own embassy or consulate).
- 4 passport size photographs, 4 leaves attached to the form.
- Passport valid for a minimum of 120 days (original and one photocopy of the first 3 pages, and the page where the renewal if any).
- Documentation (original and 1 photocopy) verifying compliance with the following requirements:
  - Regulations and have been pre-registered firm admitted as a pupil, student or researcher, in a facility or public or private, authorized or recognized by the competent authority, where should pursue their studies or conduct their research as their main activity, with a schedule that involves attendance and for no longer than three months, according to research curriculum or approved.
  - Having secured the financial means to cover the cost of their studies and living expenses and return home (savings, lending, support from parents or guardians, etc., evidenced by bank statements, deposits term, payslips, etc..) or the letter of appointment of fellow taining the economic conditions of the grant obtained.
  - Having health insurance coverage.
  - Medical certificate issued by a professional by the embassy or consulate.
  - Criminal Record Certificate.

Once they arrive and before they pass the 90 days are required to submit their papers to the card in the Foreign Office Alicante C / Joinery, 6 or through the Service offered by the Language Centre of the students of the University of Alicante. The documentation for a student card:

Official name: Residence permit for studies:

1. Official request.
2. Photocopy of passport.
3. Photocopy of visa (type D).
4. Charter enrollment in the course (Advanced Language Centre provides, Socrates, Faculty or DPSC).

5. Guarantee of financial means: bank certificate, photocopy of the credit card, photocopy traveler's check, letter of parents who presented at the consulate, the role of scholarship.

6. Two color photographs on white background.

7. Health care guarantee, copy of insurance card.

The Foreign Office card Alicante granted for the period of the course. Where then continue his studies for another term must be renewed Student Residence Authorization demonstrating the successful use of the previous year and showing the registration or registration of next course.